Teachers' comments on past Clio's Company & All Hallows projects:

"I think this is a wonderful resource. I can't believe how much the class have taken in. The mix of half classroom/ museum based work and the drama seemed to really stimulate them." (Marion Richardson School, Tower Hamlets)

"Thank you for the day. This was the most enjoyable and well-organized trip I have been on for a long time." (Christchurch Primary School, Tower Hamlets)

"Very effective, costumed actors created a strong impression and elicited thoughtful responses from the children. The trail guides were very knowledgeable and amenable, with fascinating historical anecdotes." (St Clement & St James, Kensington & Chelsea)

"Absolutely super. The actors were excellent. The children learned a great deal, and a great start to our study unit" (Bonner Primary School, Tower Hamlets)

"Thank you for a fun, interesting and informative day. The best school trip I've done in 2 years" (Globe Primary School, Tower Hamlets)

"Your project seems rare among those we get advertising for school groups. Please keep it up! The children found the experience very novel and enthralling." (Brookfield Primary, Camden)

"It was informative and challenging in a subtle way which did not talk down to the children but enlarged their experience and understanding ... the actors were very engaging and quite complex, really involving the audience in the story" (Sir William Burrough Primary School, Tower Hamlets)

"Thank you for providing such a living addition to the children's learning. They became completely entranced by the reality of the drama". (Southwark Cathedral School)
