

Taizé Prayer
on the Wednesday after
the Second Sunday after Trinity

17 June 2026

Welcome and Opening Reflection

Opening Prayer

Lord, you have taught us
that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit
and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Chant I: Let all who are thirsty come

Let all who are thir - sty come. Let all who wish re - ceive the wa - ter of life free - ly. A - men, come Lord Je - sus. A - men, come Lord Je - sus.

Psalm: 100

O be joyful in the Lord, all the earth;
serve the Lord with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.
Know that the Lord is God;
it is he that has made us and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and bless his name.
For the Lord is gracious;
his steadfast love is everlasting,
and his faithfulness endures from generation to generation.

Chant 2: Gloria ... et in terra pax (canon)

(Gloria to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.)

Reading Matthew 9.35 - 10.1. 10.5 - 10.8 (May be read in another language)

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Chant 6: In resurrection tua

Closing Prayer & Blessing

Faithful Creator,
whose mercy never fails:
deepen our faithfulness to you
and to your living Word,
Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The peace of God,
which passes all understanding,
keep your hearts and minds
in the knowledge and love of God,
and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.
Amen.

Chant 7 In the Lord I'll be ever thankful

In the Lord I'll be ev-er thank-ful, in the Lord I will re-joice. Look to God, do not be a-fraid. Lift up your voi-ces, the Lord is near. Lift up your voi-ces, the Lord is near. In the

Notices

Thank you drinks

Please join us after the service tonight for refreshments as we say thank you and farewell to John and Ella Barker.

Tower Ward in Tudor Times

Author GJ Williams writes Tudor era mysteries with one of our famous residents as her detective – Dr John Dee. During the talk, she will walk us through Tower Ward as he would have seen it, the society he navigated and the ever present shadow of the Tower of London. Please join us at 5.30pm on Thursday 25 June.

Wolf Hall at All Hallows

On Saturday 6 June, we welcomed around 100 people to All Hallows. They spent the day here in an immersive experience of expert talks, exhibitions, panels, good food and an exclusive staged reading of Hilary and Ben Miles' adaptation of The Mirror and The Light.

In these pictures you can see keynote speakers Prof. Diarmaid MacCulloch and Tracy Borman OBE, as well as an embroidery by Dr Lucie Bea Dutton.

Two Cities Eco Tip

They say it never rains but it pours. Could you catch that extra water for use on drier days? A water butt can help keep your garden green and lush, without needing to use precious tap water. <https://www.waterbuttsdirect.co.uk/>

Carbon Literacy for Congregations

All Hallows will be hosting a day course for the churches in the two cities. The day is being funded by the Church of England Environment Programme, and will share practical ideas to help churches reach net zero carbon by 2030. The course will be on Saturday 12 September, 10am-5pm. Please let Michael in the parish Office know if you'd like more details.

Taizé at All Hallows

Taizé is a short service using prayer, chants and silence. It is easy to learn, simple and very beautiful. This form of worship takes its name from a town in southern Burgundy, France, which is the home of an international ecumenical Christian community of over a hundred brothers. Regular times of prayer, chants and silence are at the heart of daily life in Taizé, and thousands from many countries have travelled there to experience this form of prayer and reflection. The profound simplicity and beauty of the worship is now used in services around the world, inspired by the ideals of justice and reconciliation that unite the community and those who visit it.

Services at All Hallows

Our church services are recorded and streamed on our website in an official capacity. You may be filmed during the service, and pictures of you may be transmitted online and as mobile content. By sitting in the main body of the church you consent to such filming and to the transmission of any official broadcast on our livestream. If you do not wish to be filmed please speak to one of the welcome team who will direct you to an unfilmed area in the north aisle. We also ask that in order to respect other people at prayer, we ask that you do not film, record or take photographs in an unofficial capacity during services.
